

People say that Susan Young ---

“...Speaks from the Heart!”

“I wish I could carry Susan Young around with me in my pocket every day! She’s the motivation I need!”

People who hear and see Susan speak say she has a special style that resonates with audiences. Many have told Susan she should be a stand-up comedienne.

Susan’s been speaking professionally for 25 years. Her direct and pointed sense of humor and style, coupled with her genuine authenticity and ability to share stories and speak from the heart, dazzles audiences of all backgrounds, ages and professions. Whether it’s a college keynote address on “Four-Letter Words for Success”, a motivational workshop on “Attitude Adjustment 101”, or a seminar on business communication, Susan’s fast-paced and energetic delivery leaves audiences wowed and wanting more. She exudes the confidence of a leader balanced with a true sense of humanity. She is an emotional archaeologist, encouraging people to use their “invisible shovels” to uncover their true potential and purpose in their careers and in their lives. People walk out of Susan’s sessions feeling energized, vibrant, excited and focused!

One recent audience attendee said “I will never forget Susan. She has changed my life!”

An engaging and lively speaker who presents from the heart, Susan has learned the fine art of storytelling at its best. Her real-life experience as a news reporter and “Life’s Little Observer” has helped her to capture the essence of stories and people. Her presentation style and content captivates audiences from the beginning to the end.

Susan’s been described as full of life, open-minded, energetic, inspirational and just downright funny!
